NEW REPUBLIC'S POLICY IS OUTLINED

NANKING, China, Jan. 2.—Dr. Sun Yat Sen today took the oath of office as Provisional President of the Republic of China and was formally invested with the powers of chief executive. The ceremony was simple, but dignified. It was attended by all the prominent men of the revolutionary party.

Dr. Sun, who is well known in America and Europe, after his arrival in Shanghai some ten days ago, was elected president by the National Assembly of reformers, representing the provinces of China proper, then in session here, by an almost unanimous vote.

President Sun Yat Sen's cabinet is substantially as follows:
Vice-President—Li Yuan Hang.
Finance Minister—Chin Chen Tao.
Premier and War Minister—Huang Shing.

Attorney General—Wang Chung Wei.
Foreign Minister—Dr. Wu Ting Fang.
Marine Minister—Captain Wang.
Chief of Staff—General Hsu.

In the audience chamber delegates representing eighteen provinces of China proper took up their positions around a raised platform. When Dr. Sun entered all bowed their heads. The president-elect proceeded to the central platform and there took the oath of office.

Afterward he delivered an address in which he promised to discontinue the Manchus, to reestablish peace, to promote trade and to devote his entire energy to the Chinese nation and aid the Chinese people to realize their aspirations. When the Manchus had finally abdicated and peace was restored to the nation he would, he said, resign his provisional office.

The chairman of the delegates from the provinces then handed the new president the seal of office.

President Sun then delivered a lengthy address in the form of a proclamation. In this he announced that a strong central government would be organized, the entire administrative system remodeled and modernized and a parliament representative of the people be elected. The provinces, he said, would be autonomous as regards local affairs and each would select its own governor. The army and navy would be made national institutions and be under the control of the central parliament, which would also deal with the finances of the country. The whole fiscal system would be readjusted, but he was sure the income of the country was sufficient to discharge its liabilities and to defray ordinary expenses.

Refers to Foreign Relations.

After giving many details as to his program for the development of the resources of China, President Sun referred to the relations of China with foreign countries. He expressed on behalf of the new republic the feeling of thankfulness that prevailed at the consistent neutrality of the foreign nations. He said that the anti-foreign feeling which had previously existed would not appear in the new China.

The government, he concluded, was responsive to the will of the people, and he was assured that unity would prevail among all the provinces in supporting the republic. By doing its duty as a nation, he hoped that the new republic would be recognized in the council of nations, and he could promise that the foreign policy of his government would be conducive to the peace of the world.

SEATTLE PARTY HERE FOR VISIT

Among the prominent mainlanders arriving by the Pacific Mail liner Manchuria are Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Fenn and Mr. John H. Perry of Seattle, Wash.

Fifteen or sixteen years ago Mr. Fenn was here with the "army of occupation" that camped at the old Camp McKinley, but has not been here since, and this morning was much surprised at the evidences of progress on every side. It is the first visit for the others.

Mr. Perry is one of the leading attorneys of Seattle and one of the rising young men of the State. He is now counsel on the coast for the big Scripps-McRae newspaper syndicate, and has initiated and carried out some of the many public reform movements for which this syndicate is noted. Perry is a personal friend of Francis J. Heney, the noted graft prosecutor, and is much like Heney in his energetic fighting qualities as an attorney. Some years ago, as deputy county prosecuting attorney of King county, Wash., he prosecuted a number of produce dealers who violated pure-food and sanitary laws, establishing principles that have been followed out all over the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Fenn and Mr. Perry are here for several weeks. Mr. Fenn has large business interests in several parts of the country and is now enjoying a vacation from business cares. The party is stopping at the Young Hotel.

BAN AGAINST STRAWBERRIES

Besides dealing with the matter of quarantine for dogs and extending the time for Eben Low to get the goats off the island of Kahoolawe, as reported in the Bulletin yesterday afternoon, the Board of Agriculture and Forestry at its meeting took up the matter of dealing with the Olua strawberries that are threatening to become a nuisance on the islands of Hawaii and Maui.

This plant has a very prolific growth in wet districts but according to the reports that Chief Forester Ralph S. Hooper has received does not do so well in the dry places. The Board is determined not to take any risks, however, and yesterday passed a resolution forbidding the removal of the plant from one part of the Territory to another.

This means that in future no one will be allowed to take plants away and start them growing in another district and now the only way in which the pest can be taken from one place to another is by natural cause, such as birds, etc.

Forget the banana-trees and remember the Floral Parade.
